

Chamonix, backcountry ski

Description

Chamonix is undoubtedly a top place for off-piste skiing. The capital of Mountaineering offers a true diversity of slopes adapted to all levels of practice. Each site has a particular atmosphere and characteristics.

The station of Grands Montets, it is large north-facing slopes in cold snow keeping the powder long. Flégère and Brévent, to oppose it, are slopes full sun with an incredible panorama on the chain of Mont Blanc. Balme makes it possible to take a tour in Switzerland. Les Houches is the ski resort that allows you to ski even at high risk of avalanche. And Courmayeur (Italy) is a resort that presents great off-piste and fun possibilities between the trees in its larch forests.

Participants

A maximum 6 people per guide.

2018 Rate

Mountain guide rate = 380 €

Useful information

Traveling

From Chamonix, it is possible to reach the ski resort in just a few minutes by car. A free bus service also provides access to the resorts.

Equipment

The following equipment may be loaned for free: transceiver, shovel, probe, harness. At your expense, the classic ski equipment.

Tarif of the lifts in Chamonix

– 63,5 €/pax.

Equipment required

- Ski - poles
- Ski boots
- Back pack
- Transceivers, harness (can be provided)
- Ski pants and jacket
- Fleece jacket
- Wind-proof and water-repellent fleece
- Softshell jacket
- Gloves
- Beanie
- Neck warmer
- Glacier Sunglasses
- Sunscreen

Picture it

Traces aux Grands Montets

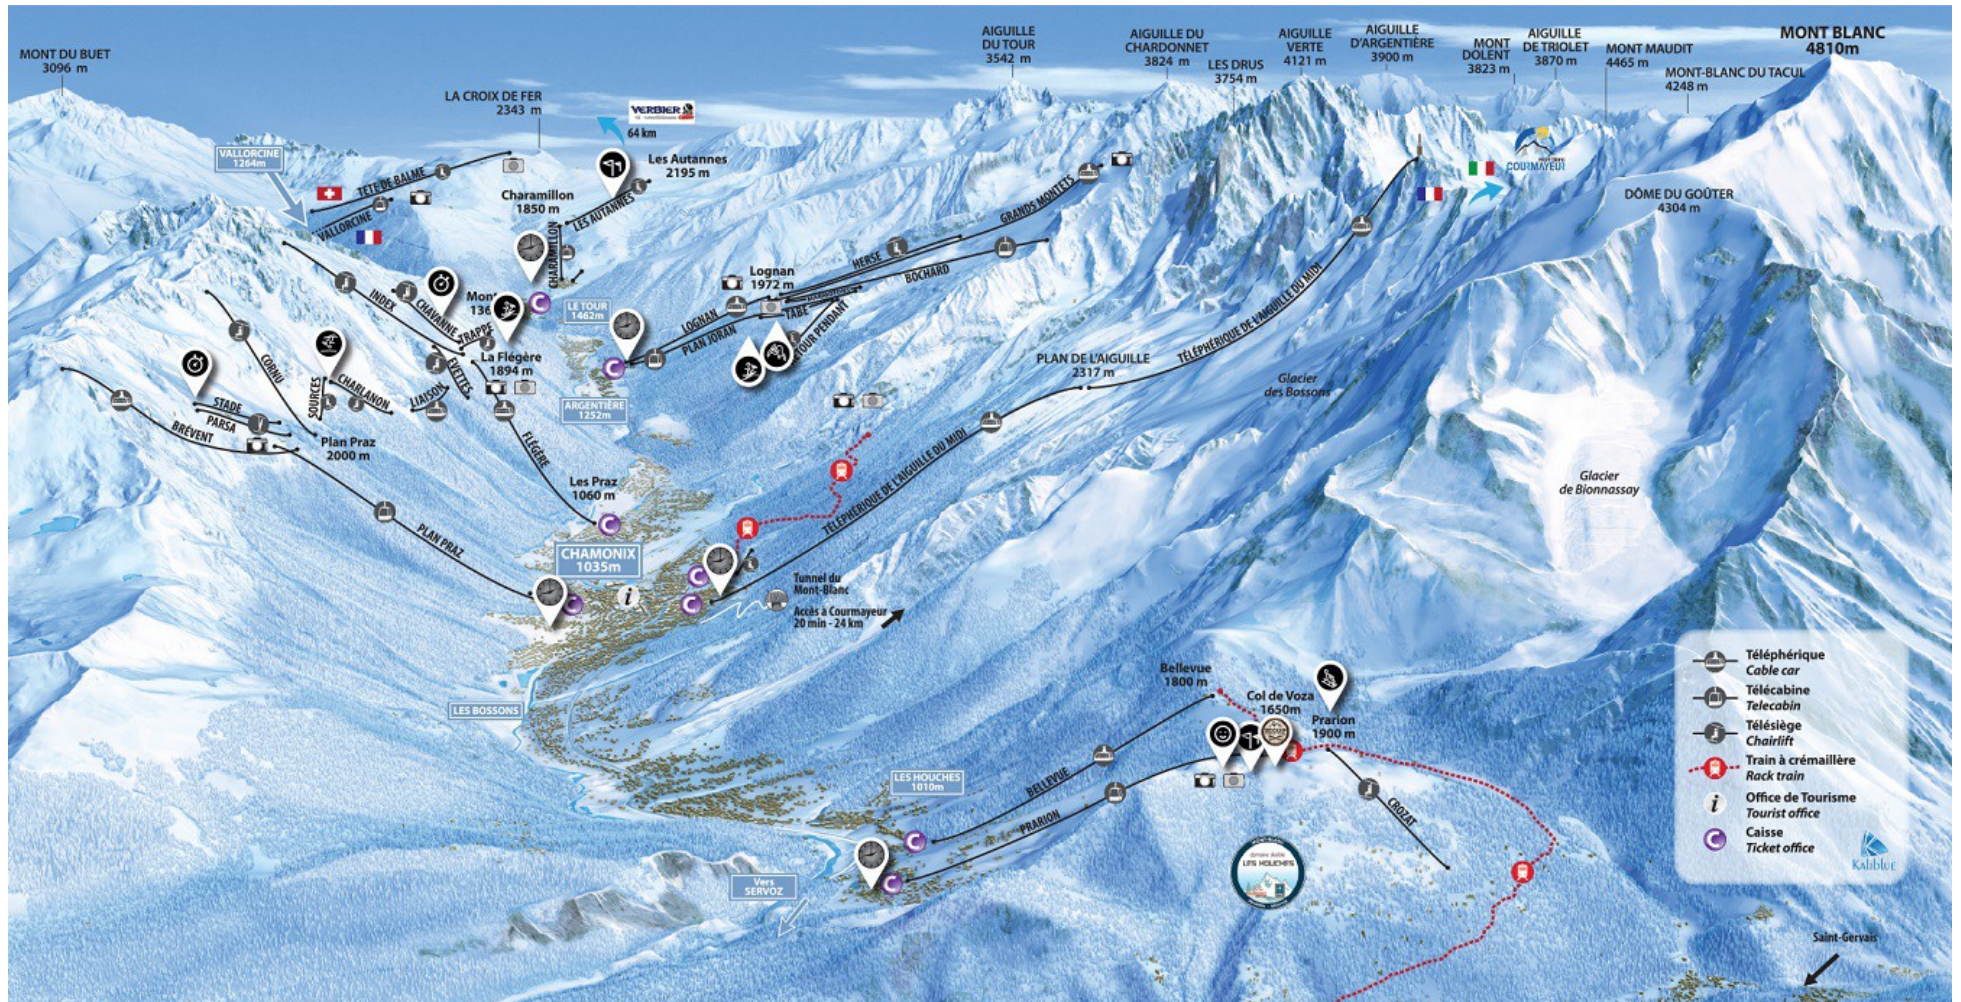

poudre

Vue depuis Les Houches

Map

Insurance

Your guide has a professional civil liability that covers the costs of search and rescue. However, a civil liability and accident insurance that covers mountain activities is required.

Suggested insurance:

- FFCAM
- Diot Montagne
- Vieux campeur

Booking & Cancellation policy

30% deposit to confirm the booking

Final payment on the day of the descent

In case of cancellation 30 days prior to departure, full refund will be provided, at no penalty. No refund for cancellation between 1 to 29 days prior to departure.

Based on weather, snow conditions, and level of participants, scheduled program may be modified. There will be no refund in these circumstances. In case of poor physical conditions, difference of level, or behavior that would compromise the group safety, the guide can decide to end the trip of a participant. No refund would be provided.

In case of inclement weather or sensitive conditions, the guide will adapt the program upon approval of the participants. An alternative program will be offered; otherwise the trip will be postponed.

Contact

For enquiries and booking:

Email: frederic.drouet@objectif-montagne.fr

Phone: +33 6 37 32 66 14

Web site: <http://www.objectif-montagne.fr/>